

MCP Audition Philosophy

All MCP auditions are truly OPEN, meaning no one has been pre-cast in any role. All roles are available. It doesn't matter if you're completely new to us, new to the stage, someone we know very well, or you've taken a class or camp. Everyone has the same chance to be in a show when they walk in to try out. You will audition in front of a panel of judges the director, musical director, choreographer, stage manager and a professional from the community.

Things all directors look for:

Does this person have the skills needed for a role?

Do they have the age/appearance for a role?

Do they work well with others on stage?

Do they follow the directions well?

Do they have scheduling conflicts with rehearsals or performances?

Casting a show is like putting together a wonderful puzzle. You might be a terrific puzzle piece but not for the puzzle we're putting together at this time. Or you may be just the exact piece we need! Auditions are the only way to find out.

We thank you for sharing your time and talent with us and as they say in the theater....Break a leg!
